The Story: A violent alien invasion caused the extinction of the human race. The surviving human colony found refuge in space where they created a peaceful civilization on a single planet called Earth. Over the centuries this planet is now a hugely advanced civilization. The galaxy is full of other human colonies but they are not very technologically advanced compared to Earth. Faced with extinction again and an invasion force of evil alien "Rathoids" the humans have to find a means to stop the invasion at any cost. In this game you represent a human named "War". You are now an advanced/sentient flying shell and your mission is to leave Earth, meet the other human colonies and beat up all the Rathoids in the galaxy. Game Mechanics: There are three core kinds of actions in Orbits: Shooting: You can shoot randomly from anywhere in the room and then manually orbit around the target. There is no limit to how many shots you can do in a row or how many can hit. If you are in the air you are invincible until you hit something. Perform actions: You can perform actions at a distance on the ground. Currently a simple distance based action (such as shooting or teleporting) but I have plans for more advanced actions that can use global and local maps of your room/level. Control: You can control the position and orientation of the shell while flying. In addition to these core actions there are several others: Moving: You can fly at any speed (limited only by your health) and ascend, descend and teleport to new locations. Shield: You can create a shield that protects you from damage and reduces damage you take from being hit. The shield only covers a certain area that is always in the same place on your level. Since the game is gravity based there are no diagonal walls. Level Up: As you collect stars you can upgrade your shell and it unlocks different abilities and mechanics. Each level has 6 stars to collect. Star abilities are assigned at the level start screen. You only start with one star and that ability so you must level up to unlock more. You don't get any stars or abilities on levels unless you clear the level. There are still a bunch of hard levels at the end that will fill in stars that you are missing and can sometimes provide the gold star that unlocks an ability of that star. Star abilities include shooting, shield, teleporting, direction

In Syria, as the last of the U.S.-led coalition's troops have retreated out of Kurdish-controlled territory, the residents of northern Syria are preparing for another conflict: A hunger crisis of historic proportions. Civilians fled Syria in 2012 fleeing a civil war that killed more than a half-million people, and many more have been killed in the nearly six years since, but the scale and dimensions of the crisis surrounding the conflict came into the full light in the space of a matter of weeks. With just weeks to go before Mr. Trump's withdrawal, the United Nations estimates that a chemical attack has killed dozens of innocent people and prompted a U.S.-led military operation to drive the Syrian army from Kurdish-held territory. "Crying out for help," the U.S. president declared to reporters Monday in Poland of the Kurdish-led Syrian Democratic Forces, and "we are doing a fantastic job." The "fantastic job" will at least partially depend on the United States. The Trump administration and the Pentagon worked out of the White House situation room during the first year of the Syria war, to build up local Kurdish forces who were, in turn, the key to eroding the Islamic State's grip on Syria. President Trump, after all, campaigned on a promise to get out of "endless wars" and his readiness to back up his words has made him a critic of much of U.S. foreign policy. Defense Secretary James Mattis has been the exception, urging Mr.

CREATE SAVES: Move around freely, create saves as you go. Use your map to identify where you want to create saves. Pick out the grass, near water, a tree or something else. You can start a new save whenever you want. Low Levels: There are few events. If you miss a save then you cannot create one later. So be ready to create saves. High Levels: You will start with three lives. If you lose a life then you lose all of them. If a life gets you to the same state as a previous save, then you keep your life. If you die then you lose a life, but the world remains the same for the next save. Make it your goal to never lose any lives. Trees: Growing trees are good for clearing space. Water: Collecting water is important. You can collect near lakes, rivers, or water sources that are not lakes or rivers. Deer: Deer are hard to hit. They hide or run away from you. When they are too far away for you to hit them with a spear, they will fall to the ground. But don't kill them or you won't find your food. There are other ways to get food. You might be lucky and find a fallen deer. If not, you can collect their dung to gather food. The clock: The clock is never fixed. You will always be learning new skills, exploring new areas, and discovering new secrets. The GrubDash Driver is a 5-minute action-adventure game designed by Greg Hensey for Macintosh and Windows. Available through the official website, this OST contains 7 original tracks composed by Peter Jones (Scarlet Moon Artists) and 3 remixes, for a total of 10 tracks. This soundtrack is intended to be played on the Mac or PC, and contains both standard and high-quality 192 kbs MP3 format files. If there's any interest in other formats I can encode the entire soundtrack or the soundtrack can be converted for other systems from the downloadable ZIP package on the main page. The mission of the GrubDash Driver is to rescue his father's ship. During the rescue there are countless obstacles, gangs of hired thugs, pilots who are afraid of capture, and a spaceship which appears at times just to be a pile of electronic junk. The GrubDash Driver has won numerous Mac and '98 Best New Game awards. (Music soundtrack is currently downloadable.) I was wondering if I'd be able to hear the soundtrack (the high quality version) outside of the application. I'm wondering if it'll play in Windows Media Player or the like. Someone please help me figure out how to get it working. Originally posted by overme:This is a very impressive game. I don't have an iMac, but I am downloading it to my PowerMac. I'm new here, so I haven't played it. It has only been in my downloads for a couple of hours, but it seems every time I start up iTunes on my PowerMac, the GrubDash Driver crashes iTunes because the PowerMac's OSX isn't up to date enough. I've tried every possible setting in the Preferences and also tried to delete the files in the Core Library folder, but no dice. I tried running it on my PowerBook G4, but it still crashed. I could tell that it had something to do with my MacOS version of iTunes. Originally posted by overme:This is a very impressive game. I don't have an iMac, but I am downloading it to my PowerMac.
